PROFILE

The formal inauguration of Sree Krishna College in Guruvayur on 18th July 1964 marks a remarkable moment in the scenario of the Higher Education in our state. Visualized by the Sree Krishna Educational Society, the College started functioning with a Pre-Degree Course affiliated to the Kerala University. The Year 1964 also witnessed the laying of the foundation stone for a permanent building at Ariyannur. In July 1967, the college was shifted to the well-accomplished and spacious building on the extensive campus at the permanent site at Ariyannur. With the inauguration of its Degree courses in Arts and Science affiliated to the Kerala University, the college attained first grade status. In 1976, the Sree Krishna Educational Society was dissolved and the Guruvayur Devaswom Educational Society was formally registered. Thereafter, Sree Krishna College came under the management of the Guruvayur Devaswom. More Degree courses and better infrastructural facilities enabled this institution to climb the academic ladder in quick, yet firm strides. In 1984, the college had its first P.G Course in Botany. The year 1988 became a momentous year in the history of this institution with its Silver Jubilee celebrations being inaugurated by Sri. E.K. Nayanar, the then Honourable Chief Minister of Kerala. The foundation stone of the Silver Jubilee Auditorium was laid by the then Honourable Prime Minister Sri. Rajiv Gandhi. In 1990 the auditorium was inaugurated by the then Honourable Central Minister for Surface Transport Sri. K.P. Unnikrishnan. The College also takes pride in its innumerable extension activities that have proved to be of immense value to the community around. On Feb. 28, 2005 the college was accredited with a B++ by the NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council), an autonomous institution of the University Grants Commission. The College was re - accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade on November 27, 2017. The strength of the college comes to almost 1550 students. The Sree Krishna College aims at scaling great heights in academic excellence as well as responsible social commitment of its students. Its activities continue to focus on the concept that the campus is a microcosm of the society.

The college was formally inaugurated by H.H. The Zamorin Raja of Calicut in the temporary shed put up near Sree Krishna High School at Guruvayur on 18th July 1964. The First Year Pre-Degree Class affiliated to the University of Kerala for I, II and III groups were started with Sri. N. Balakrishnan Nair, Retired Professor as Principal; A Managing Committee headed by Sree Rama Varma Appan Thampuran, the Retired D.P.I. Kerala State, was also constituted. The foundation stone for the main building of the College was laid by H.H. The Zamorin Raja and the construction of the permanent building was started at Ariyannur. In 1965, the second year Pre - Degree class was started. An additional science batch was started in the Pre - Degree class. Sri. N. Balakrishnan Nair, the first Principal, resigned and Sri. P. Radhakrishna Menon was appointed as the Principal of the College. The Sree Krishna Educational Society with 14 members (5 ex officio) was duly constituted and requested to manage the college. The foundation stones of 2 Hostel Blocks in the new campus were laid by Sri. N.E.S. Raghavachari, Advisor, Kerala State and Sri. M. Bakthavalsalam., the Chief Minister of Madras. In 1966, the N.C.C. Unit of the College was formed. Furthermore, in 1967, the College was shifted to a spacious and imposing buildings on the extensive campus at the permanent site at Ariyannur in July. The construction of the Main building, three hostel blocks and a canteen was completed in August 1967. The College was raised to first grade status and Degree courses affiliated to the Kerala University were started in Arts (Economics, English and Sanskrit) and Science (Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry).

The Commerce group, a sixth batch in Pre-Degree was also started. During 1968, Sri. P. Radhakrishna Menon, Principal, resigned from his post and Sri. M.P. Balakrishna Menon, Professor of English, took charge in June, with the formation of the Calicut University. The boys' hostel started functioning in the permanent buildings. The chairmanship of the managing committee was taken up by Sri. C. Sankaran Nair, Commissioner, HR & CE on the resignation of Sri. Ramavarma Appan Thampuran. The student strength of the college exceeded 1000 during the year. The Degree courses in Botany and Zoology started in September 1969. On the expiry of the term of Sree Krishna Educational Society in March, Sri. D.H. Namboodiripad was nominated as Chairman and the Society was reconstituted. Sri. K.S. Rama Iyer, retired Professor, took charge as Principal. Sri. K.S. Rama Iyer, Principal, resigned in January 1970 and Sri. K. Kesavan Nair, retired Principal - in - charge of Government College Chittur, took charge as Principal in April. The Guruvayur Devaswom came under the direct control of the new Managing Committee constituted by the Government and the S.K.E.S. was reconstituted with Sri. M.P. Muthedath as Chairman in the year 1971. Sri. K.C. Maron Raja H.H. the Zamorin Raja of Calicut became the Chairman of the Sree Krishna Education Society in 1972. The management of the college accepted the condition laid down by the Government for implementing the system of direct payment of salaries to the staff of private colleges.

In 1973, a new block of 5 rooms was constructed on the western side to provide additional accommodation for classes. The B.Com Degree course was started in 1974. In 1975, Sri. K. Kesavan Nair became the Principal & Correspondent of the college and he got retired in the same year. In 1976, Sri. M.P. Balakrishna Menon, Prof. of English was appointed as the Principal - in - charge. The Sree Krishna Educational Society was dissolved. The Guruvayur Devaswom Educational Society was registered under General Act XXI of 1960 as S. N. 76 of 1976 on 21-03-76. In 1978, Sri. M.P. Balakrishna Menon resigned from the post of Principal and Sri. N. Sundaram, Prof. of Economics, took charge as the Principal. Prof. M. Prabhakaran assumed charge as Principal. Fee Rules

1. Tuition fee will be collected in 3 instalments. The first instalment including the special fee and caution deposit prescribed will be collected on the day of admission.
2. Subsequent instalments will be collected on the days noted in the Calendar. If the fees & fines are not paid within 15 days from the due date, the name of the student will be removed from the rolls of the College. S / he has to be re-admitted and S / he has to apply for the special permission of the Principal besides remitting the arrears of fees with fine. If the fees and the fines are not paid on the 11th day or within 15 days from due date, the name of the student will be entered in a special register of the defaulters and the Principal will watch the payment of fees defaulted. The attendance of the student should also be taken every day as usual and his attendance or absence should be marked. If the student settles the arrears of fees with fine before the last opportunity given for such a settlement S / he should be granted attendance or her/his absence is recorded. If the student does not pay the dues till the last date prescribed, S / he would not be allowed to appear for the examination.
3. The caution deposit to be paid by a student for a particular course shall be retained in the institution till the completion of the course of study. At the end of the particular course of study the caution deposit realised from the student will be refunded to him/her on receipt of application from the student in the form prescribed in the college office after adjusting the dues if any on account of
 - i) Loss of library book.
 - ii) Recovery of fine for breakages of laboratory equipments and any other loss caused to property of the college.
 - iii) Arrears of fees, if any.

- If the caution deposit is less than the amount to be realised from the students the excess amount will be realised by other means as the Principal may decide.
4. The caution deposit paid by a student for a particular course in an institution shall be refunded to him/her after adjusting dues if any before completion of the course in that college, if the student applies for refund of the same and provided further the student takes T.C. from the college on ground of discontinuing the course or for pursuing the same/different course in some other institution.
 5. All claims for refund of caution deposit shall be preferred before the reopening of the next academic year. It shall be the responsibility of the student to claim the refund of caution deposit paid by him/her for the particular course immediately after the closing date of the college after the expiry of the academic year in which the course is completed or earlier when the claim for refund arises under the circumstance stated in Rule (3) above.
 6. Immediately after expiry of the time limit prescribed for claiming the refund of the caution deposit amount, steps will be taken by the Principal of the college to publish the name of the students who have not claimed the deposits before the stipulated date in the Kerala Government Gazette and if he/she is not preferring the claim for refund of caution deposit within a period of two calendar months from the date of publication of the notification of the Principal in the Gazette, the whole amount due to the student shall be permanently forfeited and the same will be withdrawn from the caution deposit account and remitted to Government revenues.

7. The students should keep in the safe custody the receipt issued for remittance of the caution deposit amount during the tenure of the course. The caution amount will be refunded only if the concerned receipt issued from the college is produced along with the application for refund of caution deposit. Failure to produce original receipt will result in the forfeiture of the claim for refund. The application for refund of caution deposit will be published in the college office.
8. A receipt signed by the accountant shall be granted for every payment made which the student shall preserve and produce whenever required by the Principal.
9. Absence with or without leave from the college shall not be an excuse for non payment of fees at the proper time.
10. Mistakes if any in the receipts issued for payment made should be pointed out then and there and got corrected on the spot. Complaints made later will not be entertained.

i. STUDENTS INITIATIVE FOR VEGETATION (SIVe) : Students initiative for Vegetation (SIVe) is a club with the aim of creating environmental awareness among students spreading nature conservation activities among students in the era of exploitation of environment. It motivates the students to value environment and to develop an attitude to work for the preservation and conservation of nature. The major objective of the club is to inculcate the habit of cultivating using organic vegetables among the students which leads to its popularization among the public. The club has organized many activities to develop the culture and awareness of organic farming among the students and public. As a part of this, SIVe is doing activities related to environmental agricultural conservation such as organic farming, crop yields of agriculture and various awareness programmes.

ii. ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB (ELC) :

An electoral literacy club is a platform to engage college students through interesting activities and hands on experiences to sensitise them on their electoral rights and to familiarise them with the electoral process of registration and voting. In ELCs learning classes fun, activities and games are designed to stimulate and motivate students provoking them to think and ask questions. Though ELC, Election Commission of India, aims at strengthening the culture of electoral participation among young and future voters. The Primary objective of the club is to sensitize student community about the democratic programmes to create awareness. ELC conducts mock polling activity to give the experience based learning of the democratic setup. We also conduct cartoon drawing, debates, mock parliaments, elocution, essay writing and other programmes which create an awareness regarding electoral procedures. The major vision of ELC is providing a clearcut vision about electoral participation and a sense of democratic attribute among young generation.

iii. RED RIBBON CLUB (RRC) : is a voluntary platform in the campus aimed at creating awareness about high risk perception preventing HIV as well as promoting voluntary blood donation among the students. The RRC conducts these activities with the support of the State Department of Higher Education. RRC also conducts blood donation camps throughout the year to collect different groups of blood. It also provides a necessity class for youths to encourage voluntary blood donation among student.

iv. STUDENTS INITIATIVE IN PALIATIVE (SIP) : Students Initiative in paliative ensures consistent involvement of young and vibrant students of the College, for optimizing quality of life and mitigating the sufferings of people with serious, complex, and often terminal illnesses. By engaging student paliative care, the energy of the students can be utilised for the benefit of patients with chronic diseases and also it may have a positive effect in the attitude and personality of students. We make the students aware of the society in which they live and encourage community participation in Paliative Care Activities. The essence of SIP is the strength acquired from unconditional love and care for humanity.

v. VIMUKTHI CLUB (ANTI - NARCOTIC CLUB) : Alcohol / Drug / substances abuses becoming an increasing menace in our nation especially in Kerala. Studies show that even school and college students are attracted towards liquor, narcotic, substances and tobacco products. The major cause of concern is that a significant proportion of these young people eventually get addicted posing a threat to their own health and safety while creating untold miseries to their families and the public at large. In order to curb the above menace the excise department as a part of Vimukthi mission conducts Anti drug club. This stands for augmenting and strengthening the existing awareness programme against drugs and alcohol.

8. NATIONAL CADETS CORPS (NCC) : The NCC unit of Sree Krishna College was formed in 1996. The present sanctioned strength of the unit is 108. Capt. Rajesh Madhavan is the A.N.O (Associate NCC Officer) of the unit. The college NCC Unit has many remarkable achievements to its credit.
