

The Operation Annapoorna

Objective: It is an effort to feed the hungry by supplying homemade food.

Context: This program is aimed at addressing the issue of hunger among the homeless people of Kandanassery Panchayath and Guruvayur Municipality and Thrissur town , Kerala.

The practice: collect lunch packets prepared by faculty members and students from all departments and distribute them among needy people.

Evidence of success: The program has been running successfully and has been able to distribute more than 700 food packets to the less fortunate in the community.

Issues faced and resources needed: it requires continuous support of students and teachers as it is made possible by the generous donations of them.

Feel n' heal

Objective: Under the motto "Feel 'n Heal," launch a series of events with the intention of giving back to society and the environment.

Context: To inculcate the feeling of belongingness and compassion in students towards their fellow beings and environment.

The Practice: The college is closely associated with a special school called Chaithanya for autistic children and also constructed a campus-based organic farm.

Evidence of success: The Mango tree plantation in the college campus with the help of a charitable organisation called Mercy Cops had its first harvest this year. The college in association with Chaithanya special school conducted a cultural fest. Students cultivated various vegetables in the campus and they also bought notebooks made by the students of Chaithanya Special School.

Problems encountered and resources required: Continuous support from students and teachers needed.
