Student progression and placement

Student progression and placement are vital for the success and prestige of higher education institutions. A college's reputation is significantly enhanced when students succeed and secure employment after graduation. Institutions thrive when their graduates excel in the workforce. The institutions play a crucial role in fostering societal progress and well-being by facilitating students' advancement to higher education and assisting in their placement across various professions.

The total number of students who progressed to higher education from 2019-2024 is 601, and those placed in different professions is 309.
